

Lunchbox Love.

Did you know?

Hanukah means
"rededication" in Hebrew.

www.sayplease.com

Did you know?

In America, the Hebrew letters on the dreidel stand for "A Great Miracle Happened There." In Israel, the letters mean "A Miracle Happened Here."

www.sayplease.com

Did you know?

The original menorah was made of a solid block of gold.

www.sayplease.com

Did you know?

It takes 44 candles
to observe all eight nights
of the Hanukah.

www.sayplease.com

Lunchbox Love.

Did you know?

There are 17 correct ways to spell Hanukkah.

www.sayplease.com

Did you know?

The Hanukkah candles are added onto the menorah from right to left, but are lit from left to right.

www.sayplease.com

Did you know?

The first Menorah-lighting ceremony in the White House was hosted by President Bill Clinton in 1993.

www.sayplease.com

Did you know?

In Israel the official Chanukah treats are jelly donuts called sufganiyot.

www.sayplease.com